

Hante Rocks and Rivers Tentative Itinerary

July 14th – August 2nd, 2019

July 14th: Group meets at Eagle's Nest Camp. Each participant will meet their group and instructors on campus. The afternoon will be spent getting to know each other and setting goals for the upcoming adventure.

July 15th – 16th: On-campus food pack out and working on paddling/climbing skills. These two days will be spent on campus focusing on outdoor leadership skills while working on basic paddling strokes and fine-tuning climbing skills on the rock climbing tower.

July 17th – 21st: Paddling local rivers. Participants will enjoy a 4-day progression from Class I – III whitewater rapids. Famous local rivers such as the Tuckasegee, Nantahala, French Broad, and Green will be utilized. Evenings will be spent camping under the stars, preparing delicious food, debriefing the day's activities, and enjoying time together.

July 22nd – July 26th: Climbing the world-class crags of Western North Carolina. Participants will spend 5 days building their climbing strength and knowledge of some of the best climbs in the Southeast. Progressing from bouldering to multi-pitch climbing, participants may experience routes on Table Rock, Cedar Rock, Looking Glass Rock and Rumbling Bald. The group will spend evenings camping in beautiful Pisgah National Forest.

July 27th – July 30th: Participant-planned backpacking trip. With two weeks of wilderness experience, participants progress to the point on the trip where they will have the opportunity to take ownership of the remaining 5 days. With staff guidance, the group will map out and plan their final 5-day backpacking trip among the 6,000+ft. peaks, cascading waterfalls, and peaceful backcountry of Pisgah National Forest.

August 1st: Group returns to Eagle's Nest Camp. After their long journey, participants return to a hero's welcome on campus. They'll celebrate their achievements with a special dinner and closing celebration.

August 2nd: Parents arrive! Participants depart and spread their leadership knowledge to the greater world.
