Eagle's Nest Camp welcomes campers with diverse abilities to participate in its programs. Campers will be expected to engage in numerous camp activities that include, but are not limited to: hiking, swimming, fishing, boating/paddling activities, wilderness and camping activities (including overnights), athletic activities including archery, horseback riding, volleyball, soccer, softball and arts activities requiring focus and use of tools. Campers will be required to successfully engage in age appropriate independent living and perform necessary self-care including maintaining adequate nutrition and hydration, dressing appropriately for environmental conditions, maintaining personal hygiene, managing known medical conditions and sharing prepared meals and living spaces with other campers. Campers will be required to work cooperatively as a member of a group and support a team approach with flexibility and the ability to compromise on an interpersonal and group level.

Eagle's Nest Camp is not a therapeutic camp and does not have clinical therapists on staff or provide clinical services to campers. Campers may be dismissed or withdrawn from the program without refund if the administration determines that the camper poses a physical or emotional safety risk to themselves or other campers.

Based on the above information, if you are concerned with your child's ability to participate in camp activities and living requirements at Eagle's Nest Camp, we strongly encourage you to contact the Camp Director prior to completing the application to discuss if reasonable accommodations will be necessary and whether those accommodations can be granted. Eagle's Nest Camp intends this dialogue to part of an interactive process and a resource tool early in the application process and not as a way to exclude or screen applicants.

We are looking forward to bringing physical, emotional, and spiritual nourishment to your child's life, and to keeping a balance between integrity and happiness. Eagle's Nest is an equal opportunity recreational/educational provider that does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, disabling condition or sexual orientation. Thank you for sharing your child.
